RE: William Wright v. Stephen Spaulding
Case No. 17-4257

Dear Counsel,

I write at the direction of the panel before which these cases were argued on April 15th.

The panel requests that the parties file supplemental briefing on the following four issues.

1. What is the original meaning of the Article III Cases or Controversies requirement?
2. How does the corpus help inform that determination?
  - a. See <https://lcl.byu.edu/projects/cofea/>.
3. How does that original meaning relate to the distinction between holding and dicta?
4. How does that ultimate determination relate to which test in Hill should govern?

The parties shall simultaneously file their briefs within 21 days. The briefs are not to exceed 25 pages.

Sincerely,

Deborah S. Hunt, Clerk
